

Fair Housing for Social Service Providers, Peer Mentors, and Housing Advocates in Eugene

Wednesday, December 1, 2021, 9:00 to 11:00 a.m.

A training for social service providers working with individuals or families who have experienced or are likely to experience housing discrimination.

In this training we will:

- Learn basic fair housing rights for individuals and families
- Give special focus to local fair housing issues
- Learn what to do to advocate for those you work with when they experience housing discrimination

Conducted in partnership with the city of Eugene and the Fair Housing Council of Oregon
